January 29, 2019 (Chattanooga, TN) --- Gate 11 Distillery is pleased to announce an Opening Date of Friday, February 1st at 3 pm.

Located behind the Dome Lobby of the Chattanooga Choo Choo, Gate 11 Distillery is a multi-product micro-distillery with a strong cocktail bar focus.

Gate 11 is currently producing vodka, gin and whiskey products with plans for a rum product in early 2019. These products are available for sale at the distillery by the bottle, by the drink, or flights.

The distillery will host a Grand Opening event on Friday, February 8th with food provided by Jack Brown's Beer & Burger Joint and musical entertainment by The Red Rogues.

The brainchild of career distiller, Bill Lee, Gate 11 Distillery is designed to reflect and pay tribute to the historic spirit of industry and innovation in Chattanooga – past and present.

“Gate 11 is dedicated to offering our customers a full distilled spirits experience from production to enjoyable consumption. We are very pleased to be distilling and bottling these unique products here in Chattanooga.”, said Lee.

Gate 11 is expected to soon announce a date for the start of distillery tours. In addition, the distillery plans to offer both Gin Class and Tennessee Whiskey Experience programs in 2019.

Hours of operation for the bar and distillery can be found on the distillery website and Facebook page.
