FOOD BOXES FOR HOSPITALITY WORKERS

WHAT IS PROOF?

Proof is a collaborative community for food and beverage professionals. It is an industry education space. It is a resource for best practices, networking, mentors, and help with figuring out what your best opportunities are and how to pursue them strategically.

We work to support, educate, accelerate and collaborate with some of our city's most talented tastemakers in food and beverage. During this unique season of uncertainty in our industry, we are committed to providing resources, information, and confidence.
