

Title: ATLANTA JOURNAL-CONSTITUTION NAMES MAULDIN & JENKINS A WINNER OF THE METRO ATLANTA TOP WORKPLACES 2021 AWARD

Atlanta, GA- April 21- Mauldin & Jenkins has been awarded a Top Workplaces 2021 honor by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution Top Workplaces. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC.

The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 culture drivers that are critical to the success of any organization including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few.

"During this very challenging time, Top Workplaces has proven to be a beacon of light for organizations, as well as a sign of resiliency and strong business performance," said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. "When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward. Top Workplaces draw on real-time insights into what works best for their organization, so they can make informed decisions that have a positive impact on their people and their business."

Jeff Fucito, Partner in Charge of the Atlanta office, is thrilled with the results. "We are honored to again be selected as a Top Place to Work in Atlanta. This achievement is a direct reflection of our staff and Partners working together to create a work environment and firm we can all be proud of."

Here are a few things our employees said about working at M&J:

My manager acknowledges and listens to my concerns and actively works with me and upper management to help alleviate those concerns.

I am encouraged by my managers to learn more and more everyday. They allow me the opportunity to try different parts of the audit and guide me in the right direction to grow more in my profession.

I enjoy going to work. People are friendly and help when needed. I love that we take advantage of advanced features -- such as paperless and tracking progress of returns.

I have so much flexibility with the work-life balance, especially this year. I don't know how I would have made it through this pandemic without M&J being so understanding and flexible.
